Planning Terms

APR – Annual Program Review is for all instructional and non-instructional programs. APR elements include Mission, internal and external review factors, SLO, update on recommendations from previous PR, update on previous program goals and resource requests, and new program goals and Annual Unit Plan (AUP).

AUP – Annual Unit Plan, which is the resource request form of the Annual Program Review

CPR – Comprehensive Program Review: It was approved by PRC to administer CPR10-11 modules on the same schedule and membership composition as APR.

Program – The based/lowest level of planning comprised of one or more discipline(s) within a division or to a non-instructional program, office, or unit.

Department – The second level of planning comprised of one or more programs, disciplines, or units.

Division - The third planning level comprised of five organizational areas: Academic Affairs, Administrative Services, President’s Division, Student Services, and Workforce and Economic Development (WED). The plans developed at the Divisional Planning level are based on Department plans from the respective division.
